

Redflex Traffic Systems Executes New Photo Enforcement Contract in Paterson, New Jersey

4 December 2009

Redflex Traffic Systems, Inc. ("Redflex"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Redflex Holdings Limited, is pleased to announce the contract awarded by Paterson, New Jersey.

Paterson, New Jersey

With a population of over 145,000, Paterson is the third largest city in the state of New Jersey. The scope of the photo red light enforcement program is for implementation of up to 100 intersection approaches with a term of five years.

"Redflex looks forward to working with Paterson and is excited to see photo enforcement programs continue to grow across the state of New Jersey," said Karen Finley, President and CEO of Redflex Traffic Systems, Inc.

According to a recent survey conducted by Public Opinion Strategies, 77% of New Jersey voters support the use of red light cameras at high volume intersections in their state.

Redflex Traffic Systems, Inc. has contracts with more than 250 U.S. cities, and is the largest provider of digital red light and speed enforcement services in North America. With photo speed programs in 9 states and photo red light programs across 21 states, Redflex has consistently led the market in contract wins, system installation rates and market share.
